Aberdeen, AB24 5BH

106.3 sq.m | 1,144 sq.ft

- Ground & Basement Retail Unit
- Occupying a prominent corner position
- No VAT applicable

Location

The property occupies a prominent position on King Street with a return frontage onto Jasmine Terrace, providing good visibility from both thoroughfares. The presence of Morrisons Supermarket as a key anchor operator helps drive regular footfall, complemented by a strong mix of independent businesses providing a range of convenience retail and food offerings. The subject also benefits from close proximity to the University of Aberdeen.

Surrounding occupiers include Morrisons, Pepe's, The King Street Chipper, Pizza Hut, and Scotia Bar.

Description

The property comprises the ground and basement floors of a traditional three-storey plus attic and basement building of block construction which sits under a mansard roof incorporating dormer projections. The exterior features a return frontage onto both Jasmine Terrace and King Street, with access into the property provided from King Street.

Internally, the ground floor provides predominantly open-plan retail accommodation, comprising a main sales area with ancillary staff facilities to the rear, together with a single WC. At basement level, there is additional storage accommodation provided, which is accessed from a fixed timber stair.

The subject benefits from modern LED lighting throughout.
