Location

iQ is situated in Aberdeen, Scotland's third-largest city, with a population of around 225,000. The city's economy is driven by the energy sector and hosts numerous international energy companies, supported by a substantial and diverse supply chain.

The property occupies a prime position on Justice Mill Lane, directly opposite the Silver Fin and Capitol office developments, in the heart of the city centre and close to the west end office district. Its proximity to Union Street provides immediate access to a wide range of amenities and excellent connections to the city's main public transport hubs.

Occupiers within the building include Spirit Energy and Flotation Energy. Furthermore, nearby occupiers include Shell, Orega Business Centre, Nuffield Health, and Park Inn by Radisson.

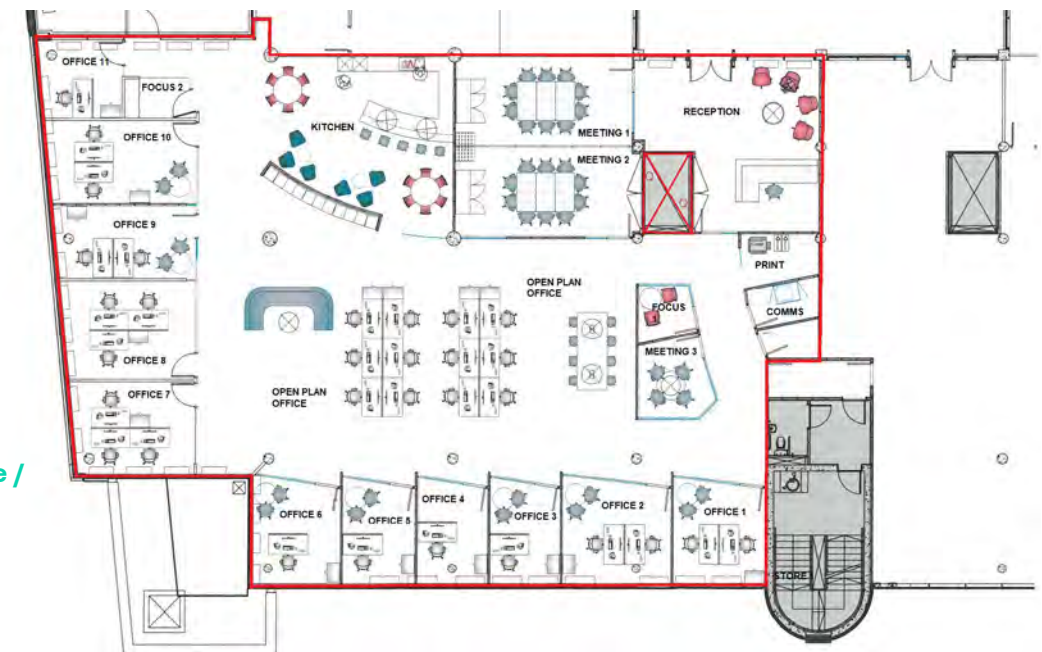

Description

One of Aberdeen's premier Grade A buildings, iQ is a modern six-storey office development constructed in 2011. It boasts a high-quality specification, including open-plan office accommodation, three 13-person high-speed passenger lifts, low-energy displacement air conditioning, and WC and shower facilities on every floor. A striking full-height atrium creates an inviting common area, ideal for informal meetings and networking.

The available suite is located on the ground floor and provides a self-contained, fully operational 'plug and play' office solution. The layout includes a series of private offices, dedicated meeting rooms, and a generous break-out/kitchen space. A dual boardroom, equipped with a concertina partition system, offers flexibility for larger gatherings or smaller sessions. Additional project rooms and focus areas are also in place.

With raised access floors, LED lighting, and acoustic treatments, the suite delivers an exceptional working environment. IT cabling and furniture are included, with AV and desk monitor systems available by separate negotiation.
